By participating in the Sports Business Boot Camp, you agree to 3 rules:

1. You Will Not Video Record the Zoom Lectures

- If you want to make an audio recording of our discussions, you may...but you cannot post or share these recordings with friends, place on social media, etc...;

2. You Will Not have Multiple Classmates consuming the lectures from the same computer (i.e. no “free riders”)

- It is OK if someone who resides with you in your home wishes to watch the virtual lectures with you. For example, a parent or a sibling.

3. You Will Not share (either publicly or privately) the Zoom access links with people who are not enrolled in the Boot Camp.

- We will be able to tell if someone who is not a registered Boot Camper is in our Zoom classroom, and we want to avoid having our virtual training sessions “crashed” by an unwanted participant.

 If you violate any of these rules, this would be grounds for your removal from the Boot Camp without a refund. Thank you in advance for your compliance with these rules to protect the integrity of the Boot Camp.

We look forward to your participation in the August 2020 Sports Business Boot Camp.
